Official Form 101

Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy

12/15

The bankruptcy forms use you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, these forms use you to ask for information from both debtors. For example, if a form asks, "Do you own a car," the answer would be yes if either debtor owns a car. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). Answer every question.

Official Form 106C

Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt

12/15

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. Using the property you listed on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) as your source, list the property that you claim as exempt. If more space is needed, fill out and attach to this page as many copies of Part 2: Additional Page as necessary. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

For each item of property you claim as exempt, you must specify the amount of the exemption you claim. One way of doing so is to state a specific dollar amount as exempt. Alternatively, you may claim the full fair market value of the property being exempted up to the amount of any applicable statutory limit. Some exemptions—such as those for health aids, rights to receive certain benefits, and tax-exempt retirement funds—may be unlimited in dollar amount. However, if you claim an exemption of 100% of fair market value under a law that limits the exemption to a particular dollar amount and the value of the property is determined to exceed that amount, your exemption would be limited to the applicable statutory amount.

Part 1:	identity	y tne Pro	perty You	Claim as	Exemp	1

- 1. Which set of exemptions are you claiming? Check one only, even if your spouse is filing with you.
 - You are claiming state and federal nonbankruptcy exemptions. 11 U.S.C. § 522(b)(3)
 - ☐ You are claiming federal exemptions. 11 U.S.C. § 522(b)(2)
- 2. For any property you list on Schedule A/B that you claim as exempt, fill in the information below.

Notice Required by 11 U.S.C. § 342(b) for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Form 2010)

This notice is for you if:

You are an individual filing for bankruptcy, and

Your debts are primarily consumer debts. Consumer debts are defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(8) as "incurred by an individual primarily for a personal, family, or household purpose."

The types of bankruptcy that are available to individuals

Individuals who meet the qualifications may file under one of four different chapters of Bankruptcy Code:

Chapter 7 - Liquidation

Chapter 11 - Reorganization

Chapter 12 - Voluntary repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

Chapter 13 - Voluntary repayment plan for individuals with regular income

You should have an attorney review your decision to file for bankruptcy and the choice of chapter.

Chapter 7:	Liquidation
$245	filing fee
$75	administrative fee
+ $15	trustee surcharge
$335	total fee

Chapter 7 is for individuals who have financial difficulty preventing them from paying their debts and who are willing to allow their nonexempt property to be used to pay their creditors. The primary purpose of filing under chapter 7 is to have your debts discharged. The bankruptcy discharge relieves you after bankruptcy from having to pay many of your pre-bankruptcy debts. Exceptions exist for particular debts, and liens on property may still be enforced after discharge. For example, a creditor may have the right to foreclose a home mortgage or repossess an automobile.

However, if the court finds that you have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge.

You should know that even if you file chapter 7 and you receive a discharge, some debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible to pay:

most taxes;

most student loans;

domestic support and property settlement obligations;

most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; and certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers.

You may also be required to pay debts arising from:

fraud or theft;

fraud or defalcation while acting in breach of fiduciary capacity:

intentional injuries that you inflicted; and death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs.

If your debts are primarily consumer debts, the court can dismiss your chapter 7 case if it finds that you have enough income to repay creditors a certain amount. You must file Chapter 7 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income (Official Form 122A–1) if you are an individual filing for bankruptcy under chapter 7. This form will determine your current monthly income and compare whether your income is more than the median income that applies in your state.

If your income is not above the median for your state, you will not have to complete the other chapter 7 form, the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A–2).

If your income is above the median for your state, you must file a second form —the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A–2). The calculations on the form— sometimes called the Means Test—deduct from your income living expenses and payments on certain debts to determine any amount available to pay unsecured creditors. If your income is more than the median income for your state of residence and family size, depending on the results of the Means Test, the U.S. trustee, bankruptcy administrator, or creditors can file a motion to dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. If a motion is filed, the court will decide if your case should be dismissed. To avoid dismissal, you may choose to proceed under another chapter of the Bankruptcy Code.

If you are an individual filing for chapter 7 bankruptcy, the trustee may sell your property to pay your debts, subject to your right to exempt the property or a portion of the proceeds from the sale of the property. The property, and the proceeds from property that your bankruptcy trustee sells or liquidates that you are entitled to, is called exempt property. Exemptions may enable you to keep your home, a car, clothing, and household items or to receive some of the proceeds if the property is sold.

Exemptions are not automatic. To exempt property, you must list it on Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt (Official Form 106C). If you do not list the property, the trustee may sell it and pay all of the proceeds to your creditors.

Chapter 11: Reorganization

$1,167 filing fee

+ $550 administrative fee $1,717 total fee

Chapter 11 is often used for reorganizing a business, but is also available to individuals. The provisions of chapter 11 are too complicated to summarize briefly.

Read These Important Warnings

Because bankruptcy can have serious long-term financial and legal consequences, including loss of your property, you should hire an attorney and carefully consider all of your options before you file. Only an attorney can give you legal advice about what can happen as a result of filing for bankruptcy and what your options are. If you do file for bankruptcy, an attorney can help you fill out the forms properly and protect you, your family, your home, and your possessions.

Although the law allows you to represent yourself in bankruptcy court, you should understand that many people find it difficult to represent themselves successfully. The rules are technical, and a mistake or inaction may harm you. If you file without an attorney, you are still responsible for knowing and following all of the legal requirements.

You should not file for bankruptcy if you are not eligible to file or if you do not intend to file the necessary documents.

Bankruptcy fraud is a serious crime; you could be fined and imprisoned if you commit fraud in your bankruptcy case. Making a false statement, concealing property, or obtaining money or property by fraud in connection with a bankruptcy case can result in fines up to $250,000, or imprisonment for up to 20 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 1341, 1519, and 3571.

Chapter 12: Repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

$200 filing fee + $75 administrative fee $275 total fee

Similar to chapter 13, chapter 12 permits family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time using future earnings and to discharge some debts that are not paid.

Chapter 13: Repayment plan for individuals with regular income

$235 filing fee + $75 administrative fee $310 total fee

Chapter 13 is for individuals who have regular income and would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time and to discharge some debts that are not paid. You are eligible for chapter 13 only if your debts are not more than certain dollar amounts set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 109.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, usually using your future earnings. If the court approves your plan, the court will allow you to repay your debts, as adjusted by the plan, within 3 years or 5 years, depending on your income and other factors.

After you make all the payments under your plan, many of your debts are discharged. The debts that are not discharged and that you may still be responsible to pay include:

domestic support obligations,

most student loans,

certain taxes,

debts for fraud or theft,

debts for fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity,

most criminal fines and restitution obligations,

certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers, certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury, and certain long-term secured debts.

Warning: File Your Forms on Time

Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information about your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. The court may dismiss your bankruptcy case if you do not file this information within the deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court.

For more information about the documents and their deadlines, go to:

http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy_forms.html#procedure.

Bankruptcy crimes have serious consequences

If you knowingly and fraudulently conceal assets or make a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury—either orally or in writing—in connection with a bankruptcy case, you may be fined, imprisoned, or both.

All information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the U.S. Trustee, the Office of the U.S. Attorney, and other offices and employees of the U.S. Department of Justice.

Make sure the court has your mailing address

The bankruptcy court sends notices to the mailing address you list on Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Official Form 101). To ensure that you receive information about your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address.

A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case. If you file a joint case and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, the bankruptcy court generally will mail you and your spouse one copy of each notice, unless you file a statement with the court asking that each spouse receive separate copies.

Understand which services you could receive from credit counseling agencies

The law generally requires that you receive a credit counseling briefing from an approved credit counseling agency. 11 U.S.C. § 109(h). If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must receive the briefing. With limited exceptions, you must receive it within the 180 days before you file your bankruptcy petition. This briefing is usually conducted by telephone or on the Internet.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, you generally must complete a financial management instructional course before you can receive a discharge. If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must complete the course.

You can obtain the list of agencies approved to provide both the briefing and the instructional course from: http://justice.gov/ust/eo/hapcpa/ccde/cc_approved.html.

In Alabama and North Carolina, go to: http://www.uscourts.gov/FederalCourts/Bankruptcy/ BankruptcyResources/ApprovedCredit AndDebtCounselors.aspx.

If you do not have access to a computer, the clerk of the bankruptcy court may be able to help you obtain the list. Case 16-06879 Doc 1 Filed 02/29/16 Entered 02/29/16 16:31:17 Desc Main Document Page 52 of 59

PERSONAL CHAPTER 7 ADVANCE PAYMENT RETAINER AGREEMENT

The undersigned, Jas & Hars Hars hereinafter referred to as "Client", agrees to employ Kent A. Gaertner P.C. and Springer, Brown LLC., hereinafter referred to as "Attorney," to render legal services in connection with filing a Chapter 7 bankruptcy for Client, and hereby empowers and authorizes Attorney to do all things, in their sole discretion, reasonably necessary to bring the matter to a successful conclusion. Client acknowledges that the following advance payment retainer agreement has been fully explained, and Client agrees to pay said fees and costs in consideration of legal services rendered or to be rendered.

Client agrees to pay Attorney a fee of $1000.00 for the services set forth below. In addition, Client agrees to pay all costs, including the filing fee for the bankruptcy of $335.00. All checks should be made payable to "Kent A. Gaertner P.C.".

RETAINER

This retainer agreement is an advance payment retainer agreement. The funds Client has agreed to pay Attorney shall be deposited in the Kent A. Gaertner P.C. operating Account and ownership of said funds shall pass to Kent A. Gaertner P.C. immediately upon payment. The special purpose for this advance payment retainer is to allow Client to retain Attorney to represent him against creditors without fear that his retainer may be subject to the claims of his creditors or a bankruptcy trustee. Client understands that it is advantageous to treat this retainer as an advance payment retainer in that it protects the funds paid to Attorney from the claims of his creditors.

Alternatively, as our client, it is your option to have your money placed into a security retainer. If this retainer were treated as a security retainer said funds would remain the property of Client be deposited into our Trust Account and therefore subject to the claims of the Client's creditors. The choice of the type of retainer to be used is yours alone. However, the Attorney may choose not to take on this representation if the client requires the retainer funds be placed in a security retainer account.

Client agrees that should Client decide not to file bankruptcy or not to continue using Attorney's services, Attorney may charge against any retainer paid the amount of $350.00 per hour for all services rendered to date, plus actual costs incurred. The client specifically agrees that once the initial draft of the bankruptcy petition has been substantially completed, the entire retainer paid shall be deemed as fully earned by the Attorney regardless of whether the Client decides to file the bankruptcy case or not

SCOPE OF REPRESENTATION

It is understood that the above referenced flat fee is payment for services rendered and services to be performed. The services include: review of financial status; review of various documents related to debts and obligations; specific advice regarding how to avoid bankruptcy and alternatives to bankruptcy; counseling as to various types of bankruptcy chapters; available exemptions; effect of reaffirmations of debts and completion of reaffirmation agreements presented by creditors if necessary, complete drafting of all required bankruptcy documents; revision and redraft of final bankruptcy documents; attending creditors' meeting, responding to requests for additional information by Trustee or creditors, enforcement of the Automatic Stay, and closing the file. The representation of the client shall terminate upon entry of an order of discharge or the closing of the case, whichever shall first occur.

Client acknowledges that additional attorney's fees will be required should further representation, outside the scope of services listed above, become necessary, including, but not limited to, any Bankruptcy Rule 2004 examinations, redemptions, avoiding liens, surrendering property, any adversary proceedings, objections to discharge or dischargeability, objections to claims of exemption, Trustee audit, or any other action, hearing or representation that is not specified in the preceding paragraph of this agreement. Said additional representation shall be covered by a separate legal services agreement and will require an additional retainer.

CLIENT OBLIGATIONS

Client agrees to fully cooperate in the preparation of the bankruptcy case, to answer all questions truthfully and completely and to provide true and accurate information or documents, to appear for the creditors' meeting, depositions and court appearances and to comply with all reasonable requests made in preparation of this bankruptcy case. Failure to cooperate may result in Court-imposed sanctions and/or Attorney's withdrawal from the case.

Client understands that he shall receive copies of all documents related to his file. Client should retain those documents as his copy of his file. Should Client require additional copies of the Attorney's file, Client understands that he will be charged for those copies.

Client understands that his file shall be kept no more than five years. Should Client require copies of any documents or the return of original documents provided to Attorney he must request those copies in writing before the expiration of that five-year period.

Client understands that it is the Client's responsibility to provide Attorney with a complete and accurate list of creditors and other information requested on Attorney's Debt Listing Sheet and Questionnaire. The Client further understands that any debts not listed in his bankruptcy schedules may not be discharged. If Client fails to provide Attorney with all information necessary to prepare the necessary documents and said failure necessitates the amending of the schedules or Statement of Financial Affairs, Client agrees to pay an additional $100.00, plus any applicable filing fee, to cover the fees and costs of said amendment.

ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS

The fees charged in connection with this bankruptcy and for bankruptcy issues only. They do not included resolution of any matters involving loan modifications, foreclosure defense and credit reporting or information.

It is agreed that upon the event of any default or breach of any kind under this agreement by Client, Attorney reserves the right to withdraw as counsel of record for Client. It is further agreed that Client shall not have any recourse or claim against Attorney for damages following the withdrawal of Attorney as Client's counsel. All representation of Client by Attorney shall be terminated by the discharge or closing of Client's bankruptcy case, whichever shall first occur.

In some cases it may be necessary to hire an attorney outside Attorney's firm. This attorney will be paid out of the retainer paid to Attorney. Client expressly consents to the hiring of an outside attorney to cover court dates as needed.

This constitutes the entire agreement between the Attorney and Clients regarding attorneys' fees and/or services provided in the engagement, the parties agree to resolve that dispute through mediation, followed by arbitration before any suit is filed.

Attorney is a debt relief agency and helps people file for relief under the Bankruptcy Code.

Special Financial Management Course Notice

Client MUST provide Attorney with a copy of Client's Certificate of Completion of Financial Management Course. If Client fails to ensure that Attorney has received and filed the required Certificate of Completion of Financial Management Course, the Client shall be responsible for payment of the case reopening fee and additional Attorney's fees of $500.00 for filing a motion to reopen the case and file said certificate. Attorney is under no obligation to file any motion to reopen Client's case until the above referenced fees and costs are paid.

By Client's signature below, Client acknowledges understanding the terms of this agreement and agrees to abide by its provisions. Client has received a copy of this agreement for his records no later than five business days after the first date on which the Attorney provided any bankruptcy assistance services to client.
